

Dripping Springs Cook-Off Club

The 2020 Founders Day Festival is coming up April 24th – 26th and the Dripping Springs Cook-Off Club invites you to sponsor the BBQ Cook-Off!

The Club raises funds to donate to other groups and organizations within the Dripping Springs community. Over the years, we have distributed over $175,000 to many great causes, and our list of recipients keeps growing.

Some of the groups to which we have donated in the past are:

- American Legion Post 290
- Austin Zoo
- Boy Scouts of America Troop 280
- Operation Warriors Path
- Burke Center for Youth
- Dripping Springs Education Foundation
- Dripping Springs Helping Hands
- Dripping Springs High School Ag Mechanics
- Hometown Mission
- Dripping Springs Ranch Park
- Dripping Springs Vocational Ag Boosters
- Dripping Springs Youth Sports Association
- Empty Bowls Project
- Friends of the Pound House Foundation
- Hays County Children Protective Services Board
- Hays County Crime Prevention
- Henley Volunteer Fire Department
- Hill Country Care Center
- Mercer Street Improvement Project
- Hill Country Senior Center
- The Friends Foundation
- Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2933

As a sponsor, your benefits increase with the level of donation. These benefits are listed below. The Club is a non-profit charitable organization, so your donation may be tax deductible
